

I Double Dare You

I Double Dare You is about Sara and her journey to assist her sister with her bucket list. Her younger sister has been diagnosed with stage four breast cancer and they make a list to complete before it is too late. They realize along the journey that they have been working on the list their entire lives. It chronicles the life of Sara during a very difficult but life changing year. It will make you laugh and at times make you cry. Hopefully, by the end you are inspired to live each day like it is your last. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book will go to assist breast cancer patients and breast cancer survivors to achieve their bucket list. The author will offer free kayak trips to breast cancer patients and their survivors at no cost. For more information contact the author at paddlersplace1967@yahoo.com.
