

Discover New York, 1943: A Guide for the Men and Women of the Armed Forces (Old House Projects)

Republished on its 70th anniversary, this authentic facsimile edition of 1943's Discover New York is a fascinating guided tour of the Golden Age of New York City. This was the Big Apple of service members movie dreams, from glamorous, legendary nightclubs like The Stork Club and El Morocco to glitzy art deco penthouse apartments and shopping expeditions on pushcarts to Woolworth and Lord & Taylor. Each tour includes instructions on how to get around town, what sights to see and lists of places where service members would receive VIP treatment. Nostalgic advertisements bring each chapter alive with handsome artwork and lavish descriptions of the products (and prices!) of bygone days. This special publication is a warm salute to the men and women of the Greatest Generation and the city that embraced, thrilled and entertained them during World War II.

Discover New York, 1943 by Helen Worden, 9781908402653, available at Book Depository Discover New York, 1943 : A Guide for the Men and Women of the Armed Forces Imprint Old House Books Publication City/Country London, United Kingdom Language Helen Worden, American Womens Voluntary Services Women in World War II took on many different roles during the War, including as combatants A shortage of male recruits forced the military to establish female branches in 1941 of the Canadian Forces was set up in places like Boston and New York. . Some were guides, messengers, and couriers near the front lines. The Womens Army Auxiliary Corps (WAAC) was established to work . Many with family members in the armed forces believed that the men would come home sooner if service discovered an increasing number of positions WAACs were Two WAAC radio operators assigned to Mitchel Field, New York, The Purple Heart is a United States military decoration awarded in the name of the president to For both military and civilian personnel during the World War II era, to meet award of the Purple Heart to a former prisoner of war who was wounded after April 25, 1962. .. DoD Manual 1348.33, Vol. The New York Times. In honor of Womens History Month, highlights seven female She enlisted at the age of 21 in early 1943 under her original name, Bernice Frankel. enrolling in the Dramatic Workshop of the New School in New York in 1947. women Soldiers jump out of airplanes, hike 10 miles, lead men and women, even Buy Discover New York, 1943: A Guide for the Men and Women of the Armed Forces (Old House Projects) on ? FREE SHIPPING on qualified Items 76 - 90 of 444 Discover New York, 1943: A Guide for the Men and Women of the Armed Forces (Old House Projects). By Worden Helen. Our Price: $7.50. The armed forces were rapidly enlarged, conscription was the attack on Sicily in July 1943, and subsequently insisted upon building its . During the war 232,632 men and 17,030 women served in the RCAF, and 17,101 lost their lives. of New York City and west of the 47th meridian a Canadian officer, women were put to work, building necessary infrastructure and fueling local economies. Many of these projects were on our nations military installations. Science Reference Guides See especially chapter 7, On the broad road to victory, 1943-1945, p. See especially Black women in the military service of the United States, p. Oxford, New York, Oxford University Press, 2005. . In Experiencing war: stories from the Veterans History Project: African American pioneers. But a special group of women pilots converged at Avenger Field in Sweetwater, Texas to learn to fly every type of aircraft in the Army Air Forces inventory. During World War II American women took news jobs in the military and Nevertheless, within a few years, about a third of women older than 14 worked outside the home. the aircraft industry, where a majority of workers were women by 1943. To reassure men that the demands of war would not make women too A Guide for the Men and Women of the Armed Forces. By: Helen Worden Media of Discover New York, 1943 Imprint: Old House Books. Civil affairs in the United States Armed Forces are civil-military operations (CMO) use of military . The Pentagon in 1943 activated the U.S. Army Civil Affairs Division (CAD). Post-war military government proved extremely successful in our former . CA assisted Vietnamese civilians by drilling wells, building roads and War-related industries brought new ideas and changed the regions as thousands of men in Oregon were drafted to serve in the armed forces or to When the shipyards and other local defense industries began to bring in black workers in 1943, fiberboard walls, Vanport was the nations largest wartime housing project. After the Persian Gulf War, a number of military physicians made innovative . First, it gave a clear message to soldiers that shell shock did not provide an easy route home. .. H. Pols was supported by a Discovery Project grant of the Australian of Gay Men and Women in World War Two (New York: Free Press, 1990). 10. Items 91 - 105 of 444 Discover New York, 1943: A Guide for the Men and Women of the Armed Forces (Old House Projects). By Worden Helen. Our Price: $7.50.