

Claire: A Beautiful and Tragic Lesbian Romance

Kate is a new author, leaving her old life behind to go on a book tour. She entered the lesbian lifestyle a year ago, but circumstances led to separation from her lover. During her book tour, Kate meets Claire in a gay bar, after witnessing her being emotionally abused. She offers to help her, and Claire reluctantly accepts. As their relationship unfolds, Claire is revealed as the childhood victim of astonishing abuse by her famous father, and Kate convinces her to see a counselor who is an expert in these areas. As Claire starts to heal physically and emotionally, their relationship blossoms, but tragedy awaits. This is one book that you cannot read without being emotionally affected!
